

Amsterdam Dance Event announces first festival names

Everything from new talent to globally famous acts to appear in clubs, concert halls, warehouses, theatres, and even the largest football stadium in the Netherlands

The Amsterdam Dance Event (ADE), the world's biggest club festival and the leading business platform for electronic music, announced the first selection of the more than 2,000 artists scheduled to perform during the ADE Festival. The event's comprehensive five-day program, which this year runs from 15th to 19th of October, will be taking place in over 80 different locations spread throughout the city.

A global celebration of electronic music

Every year during the ADE Festival, Amsterdam becomes the centre of the rapidly expanding global electronic music scene for five days and nights. Featuring more than 2,000 artists appearing in 300 different events at 80 locations, the festival offers a hugely varied and eclectic program that is expected to attract more than 350,000 visitors from The Netherlands and abroad.
